NOT IN MY HOUSE

www.drugfree.org/NotInMyHouse

Every day, 2,500 teenagers use a prescription drug to get high for the first time. They're accessing these drugs in the comfort of home; it can be as easy as opening a cupboard or medicine cabinet. The good news - there are steps you can take to help protect your kids from prescription drug abuse: monitor, secure & dispose. This site shows you how. www.drugfree.org/NotInMyHouse
